RE.: USE OF CHOCKFAST GREY FOR NON-CRITICALLY ALIGNED MARINE MACHINERY.

Reference is made to your letter of 11 October, 1984, with enclosures.

We are pleased to inform that we have no objections to the use of Chockfast Grey for the purpose of chocking non-critically aligned marine machinery components, provided the chocking is carried out in accordance with Philadelphia Resin's instructions and limitations and to the satisfaction of our Surveyor.

For our information we should be pleased to receive a copy of your "Guidelines for Designers" and "Application Instructions".

Yours faithfully
for DET NORSKE VERITAS
